Gentlemen:

The enclosed letter signed by [redacted] and dated June 7, 1972 was originally brought to you by me in regard to the problem it relates.

Upon discovering information about the problem referred to above Scoutmaster James Taylor, our institutional representative William Dickinson and Orange Commissioner Frank Hayes, together, spoke with [redacted] at her residence. Several days later I visited [redacted] to verify their findings. In my presence [redacted] questioned her son thoroughly and in my opinion, based on her questioning she firmly believes that the statements which her son made in his letter are true.

A few days later in the presence of Scoutmaster James Taylor and myself, Mr. John Gooding admitted sharing a sleeping bag with the [redacted] boy.

Mr. Gooding was advised to disassociate himself from troop 6. He has done this.

Sincerely yours,

Langston D. Miles

Gentlemen:

Re: A. John Gooding

Late in May 1972 District Executive Arthur Koepfel was contacted by William Dickinson, Institutional Representative of Church of the Cross Roads Troop 6, Orange. An incident was reported involving Assistant Scoutmaster A. John Gooding and Scout [REDACTED]

At a troop meeting and "rap" session in May after the Scouts had told what good things they had done in Scouting, Gooding - over the objection of Scoutmaster James Taylor - insisted that the boys also tell what they thought was good or bad about him. Included in the replies was the statement by young [REDACTED] that Gooding was a "queer".

Efforts were made at once to get [REDACTED] to apologize. He refused. Messrs. Taylor, Gooding, and Rev. Langston Miles went to the boy's home to discuss this with the boy and his mother.

After the discussion, Gooding was asked to no longer associate with the troop. He has not. His registration card - received with the charter renewal - has been withheld by this council.

The minister of the church, Rev. Joseph Thomasberger, is also aware of the problem.

At the close of the discussion, Gooding himself stated that the National Council would have to be notified.

Enclosed are letter signed by the scout and written by his mother along with a letter from Rev. Langston Miles.

Sincerely,

Arthur E. Koepfel, Jr.
District Scout Executive
