Dear Paul:

Enclosed is information on Mr. William H. Leininger Jr. and should be placed in the confidential files. Although not now registered in Scouting, Mr. Leininger was an Explorer Advisor of Explorer Post 131 sponsored by Burlington Northern at the time of the incident. The six counts of rape were allegedly committed with young female members of his Explorer Post.

While we have thought Mr. Leininger would never be out in public again information has come to us that he will shortly be up for parole. For that reason we are submitting this information.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Hanawalt

Rapist Receives Twenty Years

KALISPELL — William Leininger Jr., 53, of Kalispell was sentenced to 20 years in the state prison at Deer Lodge Tuesday after pleading guilty to six counts of rape.

District Judge R. D. McPhillips of Shelby, who handed down the sentence, suspended 10 of the 20 years and ordered that Leininger be given credit for the time he has served since being arrested on the six counts on July 8.

Leininger, who has undergone psychiatric evaluation in Warm Springs and in Missoula, pleaded guilty to the six counts of sexual intercourse without consent involving several young girls in the Flathead area.

The charges were filed by Flathead County Attorney Patrick Springer. McPhillips took over the case after 11th Dist. Judges Robert Sykes and Robert Keller disqualified themselves.

In handing down the sentence, McPhillips said he felt "sorry for the little girls involved," and had no "choice but to sentence you to 20 years."

The judge said the 20 years is about the life expectancy of a man of Leininger's age. He further said he was giving some credence to the psychiatric reports which had recommended Leininger be put under psychiatric help rather than be sent to the state prison.

As a condition attached to the sentence, McPhillips said Leininger, if put on probation or parole, is to make arrangements for psychiatric outpatient treatment for the rest of his life.

Under most conditions, a person sent to the state prison serves about one-fifth of his sentence before being released on parole.
