Plaintiff's Exhibit 803

Sex Offender Is Sent To Atascadero

Raymond L. Thomas, 43, a Roseville sheetmetal worker, has been sent to Atascadero State Hospital for treatment as a mentally disturbed sex offender.

Superior Judge Ronald G. Cameron ordered the commitment after two psychiatrists, Drs. C. E. Parrish and H. D. Herrick, said that Thomas' problem would be treated best in an institution.

Earlier, Thomas had pleaded guilty to a grand jury indictment accusing him of lewd and lascivious behavior involving a 13-year-old boy.

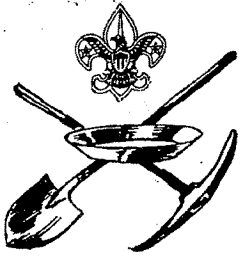

"My client realizes he is in dire need of treatment," declared Assistant Public Defender Walter Jackson Walloway.

Dear Mr. Boyd:

In reference to your letter a copy of which is enclosed and Mr. Raymond L. Thomas.

The enclosed confidential record sheet contains as much information as I can find locally. Mr. Thomas over a period of several years has not had any real close friends in Scouting.

The County Sheriff has much more information than this, but seems to be very reluctant to part with anything until Mr. Thomas' case has been adjudicated. Another hearing will be held in late October or early November, if the case is then adjudicated I feel sure the Sheriff will give us more assistance. In any event I will attempt to find as much as I can and forward it to you.

The enclosed clippings will give you more information.

I'm extremely sorry this has taken so long.

Sincerely,
Gerald P. McHale

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. McHale:

Thank you for the additional material concerning Raymond L. Thomas. I do believe, however, that we are still waiting for a confidential record sheet from you concerning this individual and will appreciate receiving this from you at your earliest opportunity. This is the only means we have of identifying this individual at some future date should he ever again attempt to register in Scouting.

Now as to your questions about placing leaders on the Confidential File who have been involved in some type of financial mismanagement. We agree completely with you that ours is a dual responsibility. One, to protect boys, the Council and the Boy Scouts of America and two, to protect men from the possibility of unwarranted attack.

You cite two Explorer leaders; one you indicate, in your judgement, is the victim of his own poor bookkeeping and loose Post committee organization, whereas the other, in your opinion, is guilty of deliberate dishonesty. In either case we would have to have factual information which would clearly indicate beyond any question that the man deliberately misused funds, and then we would determine, based upon the information provided, whether the case was sufficiently serious as to place the individual on the Confidential File. But the main point is, we must have facts before we will put somebody on the File. We will not take this action based upon a generalized type of judgement.

We do not consider financial cases to be anywhere as serious as moral cases and, frankly, we will put a financial case on the File on what we call a precautionary category unless it is, of course, grand larceny or major embezzlement.

Based upon the information you have provided, it would be my judgement, subject to possession of further facts, that the man who was the victim of his own poor bookkeeping should not be placed on the Confidential File. The man who was guilty of deliberate dishonesty should be placed on the File, especially if the amount involved was substantial. I hope that this is a satisfactory answer to your questions.

Dear Skipper:

In regard to my letter of June 12th pertaining to Raymond L. Thomas, the enclosed clippings from two local papers, may be useful as additional information for your files.

Thomas was involved in a "situation" three to four years ago related to the questionable use of unit funds.

My reason for mentioning this, is the fact that we have two other Exploring leaders, one whose registration has expired by reason of the unit dropping, the other recently replaced by the unit committee, against whom allegations have been made involving improper use of funds. In one case, it is a certain fact, in the other case, the committee refused to pursue the matter far enough to determine the truth.

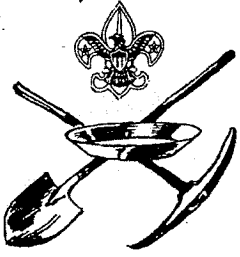

I am concerned with my responsibility to protect boys, the Council and the Boy Scouts of America yet must admit to a question in my mind about the responsibility of protecting men from the possibility of unwarranted attack.

The man against who the Post committee acted may have been the victim of his own poor bookkeeping and loose post committee organization. The man against whom the committee refused to act is, in my opinion, guilty of deliberate dishonesty, and this opinion is shared by an officer in the California Highway Patrol.
