A FORMER BOY SCOUT leader from Saline, convicted of two sex offenses involving young boys, was ordered by a Circuit Court judge on Friday not to become involved in any youth activity during a five-year probationary period.

Steven G. Webb, 30, of 203 W. Henry St., pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) on Feb. 14 to two charges of criminal sexual conduct, second degree. Judge Ross W. Campbell placed Webb on five years probation and ordered him to pay fines and costs totaling $850 in the Friday sentencing on both charges.

A special condition of your probation is that you not become involved in any youth organization or activity." Judge Campbell told the local truck driver. "Also, that you obtain psychiatric counseling."

Webb was arrested last fall by Saline police who said he had sexually molested two boys under the age of 13. Investigators said both incidents were connected with first-aid instruction which Webb was giving as an adult Boy Scout leader.

Dear Paul:

It has just come to my attention that no correspondence related to one Steven G. Webb was made with you last year.

You are now familiar with the disposition of the Frederick L. Sundling case. His son-in-law, Steven G. Webb, former Assistant Scoutmaster in Troop 446, Saline, Michigan, was charged with criminal sexual misconduct about about six weeks after the Sundling case broke. Sundling apparently implicated Webb during his interrogation. I do not have much more information concerning Webb. His address was 2580 Carpenter Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104.

Enclosed you will find a new article appearing in the February 22, 1978 issue of the Saline Reporter newspaper. He will be sentenced on March 17th.

Please let me know if there is any additional information you might require for your files.

Sincerely,

Donald R. Hall

Steven Webb of Saline withdrew the original plea, entered at his October arraignment, during the second day of his trial in Circuit Court in Ann Arbor.

Webb, since released on personal recognisance, faces sentencing March 17 by Judge Ross W. Campbell.
